Jurisdiction and Nexus
The latest interpretations by the states and the Multistate Tax Commission of what constitutes nexus for state income tax purposes. Efforts by the MTC to revise its Statement on Public Law 86-272. State tax treatment of passive investment companies, financial institutions, service companies, credit card and Internet activities. Effect of having sales reps working at home, officers residing in-state, deliveries in company and third-party trucks, leased or mobile property, in-state affiliates, and other in-state activities. Impact of voluntarily registering to do business in a state. The growing use of economic nexus standards and their application in the income tax arena. Potential effect of the Wayfair decision. Planning ideas for minimizing state income taxes.

The Unitary Concept
An analysis of recent cases interpreting the extent of a state’s authority to apply the unitary concept in its many forms, e.g., domestic, worldwide, water’s edge combination. Unique statutory and regulatory definitions. The MTC approach. The latest states to adopt combined reporting. Application of the unitary concept to non-income taxes. Structuring business to best take advantage of unitary reporting.

Business and Nonbusiness Income
Recent interpretations of the business/nonbusiness distinction by UDITPA and non-UDITPA states before and after MeadWestvaco. Determining “operational significance.” Using the functional, transactional, and unitary tests to minimize state taxation of short and long-term investment income, dividends, capital gains, rents, royalties, 338(h)(10) income, and other intangibles. Effect of operating under centralized cash management, through divisions, partnerships, S corporations and LLCs on a business/nonbusiness determination. Treatment of complete and partial liquidations. Legislative developments; update on MTC efforts to amend the UDITPA definition of business income.

Problems Session
Practical application of the concepts presented.

Cost of Performance Versus Market Sourcing and Other Apportionment Issues
Characterizing business activities for purposes of apportionment. Does the company sell tangibles, intangibles, services, mixed products, or a combination? Discussion of sourcing issues and methods, including cost of performance and market sourcing. Treatment of installment, intercompany, drop shipment and dock sales; investment activities, service providers and specialized industries. Recent challenges to throwback and throwout rules. The increasing adoption of single factor sales formulas and what it means to multistate taxpayers. Proving distortion to obtain Section 18 alternative apportionment.

Tax Base & Conformity Issues, Including State Tax Consequences of Federal Tax Reform
Effect of The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, including general conformity considerations, application by states of federal transition tax, anti-deferral rules, anti-base erosion provisions, interest expense limitation, immediate expensing, qualified business income deduction, and more. Planning opportunities, and developments in, state tax treatment of bonus depreciation, federal and state taxes, dividends, foreign source income, federal and municipal obligations, net operating losses, and related party expenses.

Flow-Through Entities and Their Owners
Nexus, unitary, apportionment, tax base, conformity issues as applied to flow-through entities and their owners. Hot topics in this area such as how to handle non-resident owner withholding and coping with the various state tax reforms designed to reach the income of flow-through entities.

Ethical and Procedural Issues
Ethical and strategic dilemmas involved in conducting state income tax audits and running the state tax department, including application of ethical standards set by the AICPA, ABA, local state CPA societies and bar associations. Determining the availability of refunds and the associated procedural requirements, such as payment under protest and “pay to play.”

REGISTRATION
The registration fee is $885 for the two-day conference and includes continental breakfast, refreshments, specially-prepared seminar materials, and a cocktail reception the first evening of the program. A $30 discount is available if payment accompanies the registration form and is received by Interstate Tax Corporation no later than October 15, 2019. See pages 6-7 for participating speakers, hotel/airfare discounts and other details, page 8 to register, or call (203) 854-0704 for further information.
Sales and use tax practitioners will obtain in-depth analyses of current developments on the most critical topics in the field, explore the planning opportunities arising therefrom, and learn practical approaches to everyday problems from both the buyer’s and seller’s side of a multistate business. Course Level: Advanced; Delivery Method: Group-Live. No advance preparation required; however, prior attendance at Sales & Use Tax Planning, this course, or two years’ experience in the field are suggested as prerequisites. NASBA Recommended Fields of Study: Taxes, Regulatory Ethics. Estimated continuing education credit: 16 based on a 50 minute hour, including 1 hour for ethics; 13.33 based on a 60 minute hour, including 1 hour for ethics.

Jurisdiction, Nexus and the Internet
Advanced issues in determining nexus for sales and use tax purposes after Wayfair. What are the limits, if any, for economic presence nexus? Questions of retroactivity, de minimis nexus and foreign commerce implications. State responses to Wayfair thus far. Impact of traditional business practices such as drop shipments, advertising, delivery in company-owned trucks, use of independent contractors, unpaid representatives, maintenance of inventory, occasional visits by employees or representatives. Establishing “temporary nexus” and other safe harbors. Responding to nexus inquiries; using best advantage.

Manufacturing Exemptions
Determining whether a manufacturing exemption is available in a particular state and how far it extends — to manufacturing, processing, fabricating, packaging, R&D, testing, pollution control; to machinery, materials, chemicals, electricity, natural gas, computers, transportation equipment; to the production of intangibles; to retail or service industries. Must the final product be sold? Proving substantial transformation. Manufacturing incentives.

The Streamlined Sales Tax Project
Detailed update and discussion on the current status of, and issues surrounding, the SSTP. Why the Streamlined Sales Tax Project has been, and will continue to be, important. Substantive state tax changes already made. Which states are participating and at what level? Prospects for the future and the potential effect of the Wayfair decision.

Computer Software and Other Mixed Transactions
Sales and use tax treatment of computer software under the latest theories used by the states. Determining what is critical to its taxability: delivery method, content, licensing, technology transfer, or another distinguishing characteristic. Tax consequences of other mixed transactions involving both exempt and taxable elements, including use of the true object test to determine whether a particular transaction is entirely taxable or not taxable at all. Structuring the transaction to produce the best result.

Accounting for Undisclosed Sales and Use Tax Liabilities
Discussion of obligations under FASB Statement No. 5 (FAS 5 or ASC 450) to book appropriate reserves for undisclosed sales and use tax liabilities. Impact of recent SEC orders related to failure to maintain appropriate internal controls and adequately reflect sales tax liabilities for both public and private companies. Identification of typical tax risk drivers which contribute to undisclosed liabilities. The impact of undisclosed liabilities on mergers and acquisitions. Strategies for identifying, quantifying and mitigating tax exposure, thus reducing undisclosed sales and use tax liabilities.

Ethical and Procedural Issues
Sufficiency of evidence and ethical issues on audit — maintaining exemption certificates and other records, including those kept electronically, defining good faith, using statistical sampling. The effect of Sarbanes-Oxley on recordkeeping for sales and use taxes; how to put internal controls in place to ensure that the sales and use tax department is run with ethics and integrity.

Problems Session
Practical application of the concepts presented.

REGISTRATION
The registration fee is $885 for the two-day conference and includes continental breakfast, refreshments, specially-prepared seminar materials, and a cocktail reception the first evening of the program. A $30 discount is available if payment accompanies the registration form and is received by Interstate Tax Corporation no later than October 17, 2019. An additional discount of $60 may be taken only by those practitioners who attend both Advanced Interstate and Advanced Sales & Use (all four days). SALES & USE TAX PLANNING

October 21-22
Hyatt Place Dallas North
Dallas, TX

November 18-19
Hotel Intercontinental
Chicago, IL

December 9-10
Courtyard Marriott US Capitol
Washington, DC

An intensive two-day immersion into the concepts, problems and planning opportunities involved with collecting and remitting sales, use and gross receipts taxes. This course is designed for the beginner to intermediate level practitioner; however, even the most experienced state tax professional will obtain practical ideas and valuable information arising from discussions of the latest administrative, judicial and legislative developments in sales and use taxation. Delivery Method: Group-Live. No prerequisites or advance preparation required. NASBA Recommended Fields of Study: Taxes, Regulatory Ethics. Estimated continuing education credit: 16 based on a 50 minute hour, including 1 hour for ethics; 13.33 based on a 60 minute hour, including 1 hour for ethics.

Fundamental Concepts and the Streamlined Sales Tax Project

Sales, use, gross receipts taxes – their similarities and differences. Determining whether the tax is imposed on the purchaser or seller. Taxation of services, tangible personal property, contractors and partner transactions. Sales and use taxes on the local level. The administrative aspect: licenses, permits, collection fees, exemption certificates, filing requirements. The effect of the Streamlined Sales Tax Project on promoting sales and use tax compliance and uniformity between the jurisdictions. Recent developments.

Jurisdiction, Nexus and the Internet

Discussion of changing nexus standards for sales and use tax purposes — from physical to economic presence and the impact on collection and remittance requirements. Overview of U.S. Supreme Court decisions through Wayfair and state responses to date. Treatment of drop shipments, delivery in company trucks, warehousing, national versus local advertising, collections, financing, other service activities. Destination and title passage issues. How to respond to nexus questionnaires. Opportunities for voluntary disclosure and prospective compliance. Recent administrative, legislative and court developments.

Taxation of Services, Software, Leases and Other Special Transactions

Application of sales and use taxes to the various forms of computer software — canned, custom, electronic, load-and-leave; cloud computing and other services; installation and fabrication labor; repairs and warranties; leases, short-term rentals, installment sales, sale/leasebacks, leases with an operator; sales of assets in mergers, acquisitions, liquidations or corporate reorganizations; sales to government, exempt and charitable organizations; construction contractors. Supporting the exemptions — problems of proof. Planning and refund opportunities.

Problems Session

Practical application of the concepts presented.

Determining the Taxable Base

The inclusion or exclusion of specific items in determining the gross proceeds or sales upon which the tax is based. Treatment of cash and trade discounts, coupons, rebates, returns and allowances, transportation expenses, trade-ins, finance charges, repossessed property, bad debts and taxes paid to other jurisdictions. Impact of the separately stated rule on the taxability of gross receipts and how transactions may be structured to minimize the imposition of tax.

Hot Topics in Sales and Use Taxation

The latest administrative, court and legislative developments on various hot topics in sales and use taxation such as: qualifying for the manufacturing and sale for resale exemptions; how states are taxing intercompany, information, telecommunication, advertising and other services; sourcing issues in multijurisdictional transactions on the state and local level; procedural limitations on refunds and assessments; and more, with a focus on the planning and refund opportunities arising therefrom.

Ethics and Managing the Sales and Use Tax Function

Structuring the sales and use tax function to maximize effectiveness while complying with personal ethical standards and those set by the AICPA, ABA, local state CPA societies and bar associations. Setting record retention policies, including best practices for converting to, and maintaining, electronic records that can be trusted. Motivating and training staff to apply sales and use tax laws correctly to both purchases and sales. Using software programs to manage exemption certifi-cates and file sales and use tax returns. Procedures for filing refund claims, amending returns, and responding to notices.

Preparing for Audits and Litigation

How to handle a sales or use tax audit, from the arrival of the audit notice to the post-audit review. Ethical considerations. Statistical samplings – their benefits and burdens. Analyzing whether to protest an assessment to the administrative, trial and appellate levels. Working effectively with outside counsel.

REGISTRATION

The registration fee is $885 for the two-day conference and includes continental breakfast, refreshments, specially-prepared seminar materials, and a cocktail reception the first evening of the program. A $30 discount is available if payment accompanies the registration form and is received by Interstate Tax Corporation no later than four weeks before a conference date (September 23-TX, October 21-IL, November 11-DC). See pages 6-7 for participating speakers, hotel/airfare discounts and other details, page 8 to register, or call (203) 854-0704 for further information.
INTERSTATE TAX PLANNING

October 23-25
Hyatt Place Dallas North
Dallas, TX

November 20-22
Hotel Intercontinental
Chicago, IL

December 11-13
Courtyard Marriott US Capitol
Washington, DC

An intensive three-day immersion into the concepts, problems and planning opportunities involved primarily with state income taxation of multistate business. This course is designed for the beginner to intermediate level practitioner; however, even the most experienced state tax professional will obtain valuable information and practical ideas arising from discussions of the latest administrative, judicial and legislative developments in interstate taxation. Delivery Method: Group-Live. No prerequisites or advance preparation required. NASBA Recommended Fields of Study: Taxes, Regulatory Ethics. Estimated continuing education credit: 24.5 based on a 50 minute hour, including 1 hour for ethics; 20.58 based on a 60 minute hour, including 1 hour for ethics.

Jurisdiction and Nexus
Constitutional limitations on state powers to tax interstate business and their effect on state income tax nexus standards. Protected solicitation and de minimis activities under Public Law 86-272. Attributional and economic nexus. Potential effect of the Wayfair decision. Consequences of selling through the Internet, employees or independent contractors; advertising, delivering, owning or leasing property in a state. Dealing effectively with nexus questionnaires. Nexus standards for franchise, privilege, other non-income taxes and service companies.

Unitary and Separate Accounting
Unitary, combined, consolidated and separate returns: When does the state or the taxpayer have the right to choose? Limitations on forced combination. Tests for determining when a business is unitary after Container and how they may be turned into planning opportunities for the astute tax practitioner.

Business and Nonbusiness Income
The business/nonbusiness distinction as interpreted by UDITPA, Multistate Tax Compact and other states. The latest on the transactional versus functional tests. State taxation of capital gains, dividends, interest, rents and royalties after Wayfair, ASARCO/Woolworth, Allied-Signal and MeadWestvaco. Factor representation and adjustment opportunities.

The Tax Base and Conformity Issues
Areas of state taxation impacted by federal tax reform. State tax treatment of income from federal and municipal obligations, federal and state taxes, depreciation, net operating losses, foreign source income, related party expenses. Planning and refund opportunities.

Flow-Through Entities
State taxation of flow-through entities and their owners. Types of entities used. Conformity, nexus, unitary, apportionment and tax base issues. Planning opportunities.

The Property Factor
Relevant property and the timing of its inclusion. Capitalizing leasehold interests. Using original cost, net book value, basis or fair market value to measure the property factor. Impact of depreciation strategies on, and the role of inventories in, the formula. Situs issues. Treatment of specialized industries.

The Payroll Factor
Scope of the payroll factor — wages, salaries and other personal service compensation. Treatment of management fees, partnership reimbursements, outside contractors, leased or shared employees, specialized industries. Ascertaining the place where services are performed — defining “incidental services” and “base of operations.” Using the cash versus accrual method.

The Sales Factor
Differences in sales factor weighting. Type of receipts included and the proper sourcing method to apply, including traditional cost of performance and the newer market source rules. Treatment of returns, allowances, installment and occasional sales, discounts; services, rents, royalties, investment income, other intangibles. Throwback, throwout and dock sales.

Current Developments
Current administrative, court and legislative developments on such critical interstate tax topics as: how to identify discriminatory state tax statutes; limitations on the applicability of NOLs; challenges to the increasing use of economic nexus standards for income tax purposes and the potential effect of the Wayfair decision; how states are defining the unitary concept and business/nonbusiness distinction; apportionment sourcing issues for services and other industries; procedural traps for the unwary. Planning and refund opportunities.

Problems Session
Practical application of the concepts presented.

State and Multistate Tax Audits

REGISTRATION
The registration fee is $1175 for the three-day conference and includes continental breakfast, refreshments, specially-prepared seminar materials, and a cocktail reception the first evening of the program. A $50 discount is available if payment accompanies the registration form and is received by Interstate Tax Corporation no later than four weeks before a conference date (September 25-TX, October 23-IL, November 13-DC). An additional discount of $80 may be taken only by those practitioners who attend both Sales & Use and Interstate Tax Planning (all week). See pages 6-7 for participating speakers, hotel/airfare discounts and other details, page 8 to register, or call (203) 854-0704 for further information.
Registrations will be confirmed by e-mail upon receipt of the completed application form and payment. Please use a separate form and individual e-mail address for each registrant, and call us if you have not received your confirmation within 3 days of your faxed or telephone registration or one week of your mailed registration so that we can send a duplicate. Your e-mailed confirmation will include an admission ticket, a printed copy of which must be presented at Formal Registration (see below). All seminar fees must be paid in full before entry to the meeting room.

Formal Registration will take place on the first day of the conference outside the meeting room at 7:45 AM. Dress is business casual. For your comfort, we recommend that you bring a sweater or jacket due to fluctuations in meeting room temperature. Please print out your admission ticket and bring it with you to Registration, as you will need it to get your badge and course materials. Badges should be worn to ensure admission to each session of the seminar and to the cocktail reception given the first evening of each conference.

The Meetings Start at 8:15 AM on the first day, adjourn at 5:00 PM on the first day or days, and conclude at 4:00 PM on the last day. A seminar binder containing the materials and a full schedule will be handed out at Formal Registration.

Cancellations, Transfers, Substitutions. Cancellation qualifies for refund, less a nonrefundable registration fee of $75, if received in writing by Interstate Tax Corporation no later than two weeks before a conference start date. No refunds or transfers will be allowed for cancellations received after this date. Refunds for timely cancellation will be given after all the courses have concluded. Transfers are treated as cancellations and are subject to the same fees and timing limitations. Substitutions, with notice to Interstate Tax Corporation in writing, are permissible at any time without penalty. For additional information regarding administrative policies such as complaint and refund, please contact our office at (203) 854-0704.

Government Discounts are Available. Please call (203) 854-0704 for further information.

Continuing Education Credit is required for attorneys and CPAs by many professional organizations and governmental agencies. Our courses are designed to meet CPE and CLE credit standards. Please indicate on your Registration Form whether you are an attorney or CPA and in which state you are licensed. Those who request such credit on the registration form will receive a letter by e-mail after the conference certifying their attendance and the amount of credit hours earned. For questions concerning credit hours or approvals, please call us at (203) 854-0704.

NASBA. Interstate Tax Corporation is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors. State Boards of Accountancy have final authority on the acceptance of individual courses for CPE credit. Complaints regarding registered sponsors may be submitted to the National Registry of CPE Sponsors through its website: www.nasbaregistry.org. Please note: Texas requires sponsors to register individually as continuing professional education sponsors. ITC is a registered sponsor in Texas (ID #000971).

Estimated Continuing Education Credits are 16 based on a 50-minute hour, including 1 hour for ethics, and 13.33 based on a 60-minute hour, including 1 hour for ethics, for all 2-day courses (Advanced Interstate, Advanced Sales & Use, Sales & Use Tax Planning). Our 3-day course, Interstate Tax Planning, qualifies for 24.5 estimated continuing education credits based on a 50-minute hour, including 1 hour for ethics, and 20.58 based on a 60-minute hour, including 1 hour for ethics. Please note that not all state boards accept half credits.

CPE Recommended Credits are in the following NASBA Fields of Study: Taxes, Regulatory Ethics. In accordance with the Standards of the National Registry of CPE Sponsors, CPE credits are based on a 50-minute hour.

Tape or Digital Recording of Interstate Tax Corporation meetings is prohibited. Please turn off all electronic devices, including cell phones and e-mail devices, upon entering the meeting room.

Listed below are the speakers scheduled to participate in the Fall 2019 conference series. Conferences (INT-income, S&U-sales & use) and locations (i.e., TX, CT, IL, DC) are indicated next to each name. Please note that some names may be added and/or changed.
